

Orange Shirt Day 2024 Art Contest Rules and Regulations

What does Orange Shirt Day mean to you? Share your perspective through an original piece of art and enter it in our 2024 Orange Shirt Day Art Contest. The winning design will be featured on orange shirts being distributed to all ConocoPhillips Canada employees in advance of the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation on September 30 to help increase awareness of the Every Child Matters movement and honour residential school survivors.

1. ConocoPhillips Canada's 2024 Orange Shirt Day Art Contest is open to all self-identified community members in the Indigenous communities of Blueberry River First Nation, Halfway River First Nation and West Moberly First Nation.
2. Artwork must be the entrant's original design and suitable for imprinting on t-shirts.
3. Artwork should be no larger than 8.5x11 inches and must be submitted as a PDF file, or in a .eps or .ai file format, unless arrangements can be made in advance of the deadline with the contact below to provide a hard copy drawing.
4. A parent or guardian must provide consent and sign the release provided if the artist is not of legal age.
5. Entries (in the format outlined in #3 above) and a signed release form must be received via email to marlene.waghelstein@conocophillips.com by no later than 11:59 PM MDT on May 24, 2024. Late entries will not be considered. If you have questions, contact Marlene at 403-998-7818.
6. One entry per person by email submission only. Multiple entries per email will not be considered.
7. By entering the 2024 Orange Shirt Day Art Contest, entrants specifically agree to grant ConocoPhillips Canada a non-exclusive, paid up, royalty free and perpetual license to reproduce images of their artwork.
8. The winning entry will be chosen by ConocoPhillips Canada and the decision is final.
9. The winner will receive a prize of one iPad and an orange shirt with their design on it. The artist can be credited on the shirt if the artist wishes.
10. The winner will be notified by Friday, June 21, 2024.
